FROM FR. REID

Pastoral Council

Our school advisory board, finance council, stewardship committee, and other committees have all been doing excellent, faithful work as part of the Stewardship way of life in the parish for a number of years now. Because they are strong and focused, many of the larger conversations about parish direction have naturally happened in those rooms first. One unforeseen result is that our Pastoral Council has become underutilized. I have even been asked on a few occasions what the role of the Pastoral Council even is anymore.

Canon 536 gives the Pastoral Council one clear, indispensable mission: to advise the pastor on the spiritual works of the parish. In plain language, the council is meant to prayerfully study our real and lived situation, create a unified pastoral vision, communicate that vision to the whole parish, and keep watch over how well we're living it out. Their voice is consultative, but it is the primary voice meant to guide our overall spiritual and missionary direction. It is indispensable to me as the Pastor to hear from the Pastoral Council.

This upcoming week we'll have our 2nd meeting since I arrived last summer. I would like the entire parish to pray for the success of that meeting and for our pastoral council members. So much goes into a healthy parish; and it starts with prayer, gratitude, and listening to the still small voice of the Lord. As we begin 2026, I can't think of a better prayer than for the success of our Pastoral Council.

To everyone who has served on the Pastoral Council during these quieter years; thank you for your patience and faithfulness. To our current members; thank you for stepping up to the work that we will undertake together. To the whole Parish; please keep the Council in your prayers. When the Pastoral Council fully lives its role, every other good thing we're already doing will bear even more fruit.

*Peace and all good things,
Fr. Reid*

Prayer to St. Joseph

Hail, guardian of the Redeemer, spouse of the Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted His only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself to be a father, and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil.

Amen!
