FROM FR. REID

Seasonal Marian Hymns

I am pleased to share that we will begin singing the four seasonal Marian antiphons as our post-Communion hymn of thanksgiving at the 10:30 Sunday "Principal Mass" starting February 8th. This date falls in the period when we transition to Ave Regina Caelorum, the antiphon appointed from after the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2, Candlemas) through the Easter Vigil.

These ancient chants, drawn from the Church's rich tradition of the Divine Office (the 5 daily prayers that all priests and religious say), offer a beautiful way to conclude our Eucharistic celebration with gratitude to God through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The printed sheets with texts and simple chant notations will be placed in the pews for your easy participation.

The four antiphons and their seasons:

Alma Redemptoris Mater ("Loving Mother of the Redeemer") is sung from the First Sunday of Advent through February 2, tenderly calling Mary the open gate of heaven and star of the sea who bore our Savior.

Ave Regina Caelorum ("Hail, Queen of Heaven"), which we begin on February 8th, greets Mary as Queen, root, and portal of the world's Light, asking her to intercede for us sinners.

Regina Caeli ("Queen of Heaven") fills the Easter season with alleluias, proclaiming joyfully: "Rejoice, for He whom you merited to bear has risen as He promised."

Salve Regina ("Hail, Holy Queen") accompanies Ordinary Time from after Pentecost until Advent, invoking Mary as Mother of Mercy, our life, sweetness, and hope.

By incorporating these hymns, we express thanksgiving for the Eucharist while entrusting ourselves to Mary's maternal care, drawing closer to Christ through her. This practice roots us in centuries of Catholic devotion and enriches our Sunday worship in the same way that chant and incense have since their introduction in November. While there is a season for each of the hymns, we will gradually role them out one by one so that the choir and parish are able to incorporate them without being overwhelmed.

*Peace and all good things,
Fr. Reid*

PRAYER LINE

Prayer Works! If you would like to have a Member of the St. Martin's Prayer Line pray for a loved on or for your special needs, please send your request to the following email:
prayerline@stmartinjc.org.

VOCATION CORNER

The family is the environment in which Christian virtues are allowed to grow and it stands to reason that it is also a place where religious vocations are planted. The family provides the seedbed in which the seed of a vocation may be planted and nurtured. Parents and families have an essential role in magnifying the voice of God in the hearts and souls of their children. Parents are stewards of the vocations of their children.

Pause ~ Reflect ~ Pray ~ Act

Please pray for all seminarians, especially St. Martin graduate Justin Francka.

Renew the Church by Inspiring Vocations!

If you would like to have the St. Martin's Prayer Line pray for your special needs, please email prayerline@stmartinjc.org
